

Anticipated Program of Study

Lower-division prerequisites: 10 credit hours		Upper-division requirements: At least 45 credit hours
EDUC 10: Intro to Educational Issues and Scholarship or EDUC 11: Education, Equality, & Future of American Society	EDUC 35: Intro to Inquiry and Research in Education	Orientation to Community Engagement (4 units)	Histories and Philosophies of Education: 2 courses	Contexts of Teaching, Learning, and Development: 2 courses	Inquiry and Design for Learning: 2 courses	Upper-division education elective, any category	Capstone (4 units)
			Must include at least one additional community engagement course (4 units or more) chosen from specially designated upper-division courses

5 unit courses: either a class that meets 2x week w/ a community engagement component or applied research component

4 unit courses: workload and assignments with library research that equate to 12 hrs/week